WONDER IN HOSPITAL.

Will Have Strict Quiet for Three Weeks, Then Go to Resort—Queen Sends Inquiry.

BORDEAUX, France, Feb. 22 (via Paris).—It was announced early today that Sarah Bernhardt, whose right leg was amputated yesterday at a hospital here, had passed a good night. She slept continuously and her pulse and temperature are normal.

Telegrams of inquiry regarding Mrs. Bernhardt's condition have been received from Queen Victoria of Spain, the ex-Empress Eugenie, Paul Deschanel, President of the Chamber of Deputies, and Albert Dalimier, Under Secretary of Fine Arts, together with hundreds of others. Edmund Rostand went to Arochon yesterday and remained there until assured the operation had been successful.

Surgeons and nurses present at the operation expressed themselves as deeply impressed by the calm courage with which the famous tragedienne faced the ordeal.

Before the anesthetic was administered she asked permission to embrace her son, Maurice, who was waiting anxiously in the next room. She then expressed her readiness for the surgeons to proceed.

The operation proper lasted nineteen minutes and the leg was removed above the knee. After she had recovered consciousness Mrs. Bernhardt was carried from the operating room to the elevator which took her to her rooms on the floor below. She was completely mistress of herself and appeared in no way excited.

She will be kept absolutely quiet for three weeks and then will be removed to Andernos near Arochon, where she will complete her convalescence.

SKIPPER'S WIFE DARES DEATH TO SAVE SHIP

Mrs. Gjerding Eager to Aid in Freighter's Fight Against Stormy Sea.

Storm battered and leaking, the Norwegian freighter Egda, under charter to the Munson Line, reached port late last night and is lying off the Statue of Liberty until she can be towed to Yonkers to discharge what is undamaged of her cargo.

For three days and nights, according to Capt. Albert Gjerding, the vessel was hammered by mountainous waves. Capt. Gjerding and his bride of six months and twenty-six members of the crew were in peril.

Mrs. Gjerding donned oilskins and was on deck eager to aid in the fight for life whenever it was reasonably safe for even the men to expose themselves.

The Egda was laden with sugar, which she took in at Manzanillo and Jucaro, Cuba. The leak, which was discovered on the last day of the storm, badly damaged the cargo.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. This causes a variety of ailments, including rheumatism, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which every one should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

ALDERMEN TRYING TO BAR MARRIAGE CHAPEL FROM THE CITY HALL

Plan to Stop "Shake Downs"
by Putting Wedding Bells
in Municipal Building.

Aldermen Quinn and Poulker introduced at this afternoon's meeting of the board a resolution abolishing the marriage "chapel" in the basement of the City Hall and transferring it to a room in the Municipal Building immediately adjoining the City Clerk's office. The resolution was referred to the Committee on General Welfare and will be reported out at the next meeting of the board.

"Some of the absent-minded young couples will get lost looking for the chapel if we put it over in the Municipal Building," argues Alderman Dowling, who will lead a fight against the resolution.

The resolution establishing the "chapel" in the basement of the City Hall was adopted by the Aldermen in March, 1895. It gave the City Clerk the power to designate two men to look after the chapel and to solicit money. But there is a joker in the old resolution. This is to the effect that the parties being married must be informed that whatever they want to give must be voluntary. Of course no one escaped without a "voluntary contribution." Alderman "Happy Jack" Reardon has been performing the ceremonies for some time.

Alderman Curran, majority leader of the board, contends that the "chapel" privileges have been abused. He says runners are busy every day piloting couples from the Municipal Building, where they get their marriage licenses, to the basement of the City Hall.

"Many couples were shaken down for $10 when they wanted to get married on Saturday afternoon," says Curran.

The new resolution provides not only for a change of location, but also for the City Clerk himself, but that the Board of Aldermen appoint one of their number to sit one day a week as marrying Alderman. It will also empower the City Clerk or his deputy to perform a ceremony, without compensation.

PRISONER AT FUNERAL.

Detective Takes Boy to See His Dead Brother.

"Lieutenant," said Detective Cassidy today as he entered the Third Precinct Detective Bureau with a prisoner and addressed Lieut. Gallagher, "this young fellow here is Salvatore Duranto, arrested for burglary. When he was first arrested he said he was fifteen, and I took him to the Children's Court. He admitted today he is the seventeen-year-old boy who was the partner in the murder of his brother Vincenzo, who was killed in Prince Street Saturday and is being buried today from No. 377 East One Hundred and Seventeenth Street."

Salvatore here sprang forward and threw himself on his knees. "Take him over to the funeral," said Gallagher. "It's unusual, but take him there. Then hurry up to court with him." Cassidy did.

Oddities in the War News

A British warship was almost on a supposed German submarine when the "periscope" proved to be a pole in the centre of a submerged raft, to the sides of which were attached fifteen mines.

A Polish soldier in East Prussia wrote his sister in Sag Harbor that he would desert and join her. Across the envelope was written, evidently by a censor: "Your brother will not desert. He was taken out and shot this morning."

The older boys and girls of Germany are to be excused from school attendance and employed in farm work in East Prussian and Bavarian provinces.

The London Times says that in the last few days a large amount of insurance has been placed in the London market on property in the United States against risks of damage by war.

An observatory has been erected on a height near Bonfel, in Switzerland, to watch the movements of German and French troops and see that there are no violations of Swiss neutrality.

GLEASON LOSES SUIT AGAINST HARRY THAW

U. S. Supreme Court Decides Against Lawyer in His Claim for $60,000 for Services.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—John B. Gleason, a New York lawyer, to-day lost his suit in the Supreme Court for $60,000 damages for defending Harry K. Thaw in his first trial for the killing of Stanford White.

The court held that services of lawyers are not property, within the meaning of the bankrupt law, which provides a bankrupt shall not be discharged from liability for obtaining property by false pretenses, and so affirmed the Federal courts in New York.

SUICIDE NEARLY KILLS TWO.

Gas Ends Mother's Life—Spreads to Husband's and Son's Rooms.

In ending her life with gas early today at No. 418 Melrose street, Williamsburg, Mrs. Alma Rueloff, sixty-five years old, nearly killed her husband, Henry, and her son, Charles. She had been despondent because of ill health.

She detached a tube from a heater in the bathroom and put it on a jet. She failed to close the bathroom door as she lay down with one end of the tube in her mouth, and the gas filled her husband's room and her son's, further away. The boy was awakened at 4:30 this morning by a choking sensation and found his father in a comatose state. He called for help and a policeman responded. Mrs. Rueloff had been dead for several hours. Dr. Bernin from the German Hospital attended father and son.

MUST DO KITCHEN WORK.

Man Given Liberty If He Washes
Dishes for Four Months.

FLINT, Mich., Feb. 22.—Joseph Cell was sentenced to wash dishes for his wife for fourteen months by Judge Howland Weist, in the Circuit Court here. Cell pleaded guilty to a violation of the local option law. He told the court that he had been unable to get work for fourteen months.

The court then asked his wife if he did any work about the house. She said she carried the water and coal, but that he never helped her to wash the dishes. Cell was allowed his liberty on probation and must wash the dishes.

218,000 WOMEN VOTERS MAY SWING ELECTION IN CHICAGO

Cast Ballots To-Day for First Time for Full City Ticket in Primary Contests.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—Voting was brisk to-day in the Mayorality primary, the first in which Chicago women have participated. The morning dawned dark and gloomy with spatters of rain. Soon afterward the sun shone brightly, only to retire behind clouds before noon. The weather, however, made little difference to the women voters who in some of the precincts outnumbered the men and were much in evidence in all the precincts.

There are 665,911 persons eligible to vote, 147,199 men and 218,712 women.

Followers of Mayor Carter H. Harrison and of Robert M. Switzer, his opponent for nomination on the Democratic ticket, watched the lines of voters and each declared they spelled victory for his candidate. In the Republican camp opinion was about equally divided between Judge Harry Olson and William Hale Thompson.

Charles M. Thompson, Progressive party candidate, had no opposition on his ticket and had made no campaign. The polls opened at 5 o'clock. At every voting booth in the city there were hundreds of the fair voters in line ready to wield the franchise long before daylight.

Because of wholesale fraud charges and a score of more arrests already, special police reserves were held in readiness to be rushed to booths where intimidation of voters was expected.

MOCK MARRIAGE LEGAL.

BINGHAMTON, Feb. 22.—John B. Andrews, 25 years old, has started legal proceedings to recover damages from Charles Springer, alleging Springer had him married without his consent. Andrews and Miss Grace Beacham, 19 years old, participated in what they thought was a mock marriage at a church social at Tioas. But a regular license had been secured and a justice of the peace performed the ceremony. Andrews, who is engaged to another girl, found the marriage valid and sued Springer, who had charge of the affair.

RICH MAN'S SON HELD AS THIEF IN SPITE OF $200,000 BAIL OFFER

Prominent Men Try in Vain to Aid Boy Accused of Attempting to Pick Pockets.

Neither the financial potency of his father nor the character testimony of prominent men moved Magistrate House in the West Side Court to-day to dispense anything but even handed justice to Franklin Veith, the sixteen-year-old son of Hugo Veith, a wealthy millinery importer at No. 622 Broadway. He found the boy guilty of the charge of attempting to pick pockets and sent him to the cells behind the court building without bail to await sentence on Thursday.

Detective Miller, assigned to watch for pickpockets in the subway, testified that on Feb. 17 he had watched the actions of the lad on the island platform at the Ninety-sixth Street Station. Young Veith had allowed several trains to pass him, the detective said, and on three occasions had attempted to force his way in a crowd of women and open their reticules. Finally, seeing that he was being watched, the boy had jumped on a Bronx train and rode to the Mott Haven Station, where he tried to run when he saw the detective pursuing.

The boy entered a general denial and said he had gone to Mott Haven by taking the wrong train. Abram Elkus, his counsel, put on the stand as character witnesses for the boy Municipal Court Justice Frederick Spiegelberg, Dr. Henry Leipsigler of the School Lecture Bureau and Prof. Campbell, the prisoner's teacher in the Columbia school. All spoke most highly of him.

After the Magistrate had found the lad guilty Elkus made an impassioned plea that he be admitted to bail pending investigation by the probationary officer. To his pleas were added those of the distracted father.

"I'll give $200,000 bail!" the elder Veith cried; but the Magistrate was unimpressed.

"I see no reason why an exception should be made in this case," he said.

KILLS SELF WITH GAS.

Shopkeeper Sends Son to School and Then Commits Suicide.

Marcus Borman, who owned a hardware shop in Second Avenue, called his little boy Elias to him this morning in their home at No. 151 Allen Street, gave him a dollar and the keys to the store and told him to run along to school and look in at the store on his way home. Borman said he was not feeling well and would stay at home. As soon as the boy was gone Borman dragged a gas tube from the stove, tied it around his neck with the end in his mouth, lay down and turned on the gas. When Elias reached home his father was dead. Borman's business had been bad for months. He suffered from chronic stomach trouble and his wife is in a hospital in Westchester in a critical condition after a serious operation.

GALICIA CHARNEL-HOUSE SINCE RAINS UNCOVERED DEAD, ASSERT REFUGEES

Once Prosperous Merchant
Ruined by War, Brings
Tale of Horrors.

Bruno von Brzezicka, his wife and two daughters, all refugees from Galicia, were passengers aboard the Red Star liner Finland, in to-day from Mediterranean ports. They had tales of horror to tell of the war scarred land they had left, where pestilence and starvation stalked hand in hand behind the waves of Russian invasion.

Von Brzezicka had been a prosperous merchant in Lember until the Russians captured the city, requisitioned money and supplies from its inhabitants and ruined him. His son, an officer in the Austrian army, was captured and sent to Siberia a prisoner, and life looked so dark for the von Brzezickas that they fled from Lemberg to Vienna. What with threatened starvation there and the disorganization of all business, the ruined merchant moved his family again. This time they are going to California, as far from war as they can get.

"Nobody in this country can imagine the horrors of war in ruined Galicia," said Miss Sofia, the linguist for the party. "All the fields about Lemberg are filled with dead men, seeming to rise from their shallow graves with the washing away of the dirt by the winter rains."

"Cholera is everywhere; people are starving; cousin fights against cousin in opposing armies. The end of the world is there."

Passengers aboard the Finland said that the Italian Government is keeping all able-bodied men at home in anticipation of eventualities. Police men even boarded the Finland at Palermo and took from the gang of stokers the strongest men rather than allow them to get beyond the call of the recruiting sergeant.

HOTEL MAN IS ON TRIAL.

John Hill Jr. Accused of Stealing
$1,500 Bonds.

John Hill, proprietor and manager at various times of hotels and restaurants in Manhattan and Brooklyn, the Clarendon and Murray's among them, was put on trial before Justice Crane in the Supreme Court in Brooklyn, to-day, charged with the theft of fifteen $100 bonds of the A. and M. Robbins Corporation, a provision concern, from William Hill.

According to the indictment, Hill persuaded Howard Maxwell, W. S. Hurley and Gow to give up fifteen bonds each, on the pretense that he would give a similar amount and give the sixty bonds to two salesmen of the concern, to stimulate their interest. It is charged the stock was never given to the salesmen. Maxwell, who was president of the Borough Bank, committed suicide.

MRS. WALTERS MAYBE AT INQUEST THURSDAY

Child Poisoner Examined as to Physical Fitness for Ordeal
Before Coroner.

An examination of Mrs. Ida Halflon Walters, the child poisoner, was held this afternoon in Lebanon Hospital for the purpose of determining how soon she will be physically able to attend the inquest into the cause of the death of her two children. The examination was conducted by Coroner Physician Riegelman. Dr. Greenberg of the hospital staff and Coroner Flynn, District Attorney Martin and Supt. Daub were present as witnesses.

District Attorney Martin is of the opinion that Mrs. Walters is well enough to be removed to the County Jail. If she is found to be in reasonably good health the inquest will be held on Thursday, and the District Attorney will raise no objections to her being present. She has already been subpoenaed.

Vinol

RESTORES STRENGTH

TO OVERWORKED RUN-DOWN MEN

YOUR MONEY BACK IF IT FAILS

I Gladly Recommend Vinol

"I was all run-down, weak and nervous and had no appetite at all. In fact I was very much discouraged until our druggist told me about Vinol and asked me to try it. I did so and it has certainly been a life saver to me. I can gladly recommend Vinol to any one who needs a blood and nerve tonic." — S. S. STERNROD, Nelsonville, Ohio.

When a man is run-down, weak and nervous, he needs a good appetite, good digestion, better blood, more strength, and we do not know of any medicine that will supply it so quickly as Vinol.

It is the combined action of the curative elements of the cods' livers aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron contained in Vinol which makes it the best body building and strength creating tonic known.
